

WEST SCRANTON

RESULT OF BOY RIDING ON CARS

YOUNG GAHAGAN HAD HIS SKULL FRACTURED.

One of His Legs Was So Badly Mangled That Amputation Was Necessary—Died at the Hospital—Escaped Prisoner Recaptured. Committees for Embury Methodist Church Dedication—News of the Churches—Events of This Evening, Notes and Personals.

Joseph, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gahagan, of 430 Chestnut street, was run down and fatally injured, by an engine on the Lackawanna railroad, above the Cayuga yesterday afternoon. In company with a number of boys, young Gahagan went for a ride on freight train No. 61, going north.

When the train reached a point at what is known as the "Luzerne cut," Gahagan jumped off and stepped onto the south-bound track. He did not notice a "pusher" backing down, and before he could get out of the way, the engine bore down on him.

The engine was stopped as quickly as possible and the boy picked up in an unconscious condition and brought down to the city. The Moses Taylor ambulance was summoned, and the injured lad was taken there for treatment.

One of his legs was fractured so badly that amputation was necessary, and he also sustained a fractured skull and severe contusions about the head and body. As the result of his injuries, he died at 8 o'clock last evening at the hospital.

The boy's father is a conductor on the Lackawanna railroad. No less than thirty boys have been arrested during the past month by the Lackawanna railroad police for jumping and riding on cars, and yet many of them persist in violating the rules and suffering arrest and possible injury by such action.

Escaped from the Home.

Phillip Kellott, of 1217 Division street, who has been an inmate of the Hillside Home for some time, escaped from that institution a few days ago. Word was sent for the local police to be on the lookout for him.

At 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Patrolman H. T. Bradshaw, who is doing his duty, found Kellott at the Miss Mabel Fordham will leave today for Abath, Mass., stopping en route for a few days' visit with friends at Boston, Pa.

Merchants on Dickson avenue have been greatly annoyed for some time by petty thefts, which have been perpetrated by the small boys who congregate on that street. Nuts, fresh fruits and vegetables have been carried away by them to quite an extent. Saturday, the latest, a boy was caught in the act of making way with a fine lot of radishes and green onions by Constable Huffing, who promptly collared them and marched them to Alderman Bailey's office. After a severe reprimand from the alderman the boys were allowed to depart, but were warned that a further offence would be more severely dealt with.

OBITUARY. MRS. ANN GIBBONS, one of the most eminently respected of the older residents of Honesdale, died Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, after a six months' illness, at her home in Westport, County Mayo, Ireland, seventy-five years ago, and came to this country when a young girl. She lived in Honesdale ever since. Her husband was the late Miles Gibbons, who at the time of his death, was the oldest staid engineer in the employ of the Delaware and Hudson company. Her brother was the celebrated Rev. Peter Conway, who, at the time of his death, ranked as one of the ablest preachers in Ireland. "Mother Cyril, superior of the Order of the Immaculate Heart of Mary" is his niece. Surviving her are the following sons and daughters: Dr. H. H. Gibbons and Miss Mary Gibbons of this city; Dr. Peter Gibbons, of Syracuse; Mrs. P. McElhinney, of Pittsford, and Miss D. Gibbons, of Honesdale. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, in Honesdale. A number of friends will go over to the funeral from this city on the 6:20 a. m. Delaware and Hudson train.

Judge Horace Russell tells the following story of the late Irish "barrier," Tom Nolan: "The barrier was flushed with oratorical enthusiasm as he started in to argue from his brief, point by point, before the late and equally eminent Chief Justice Shea of the Marine court. The thunder of the barrier's voice ceased to reverberate for the moment as he rested after delivering Point 1. "Denied," came from the chief justice of the Marine court. "This," said the barrier, rising, "I trust your honor will hear me with patience during the presentation of Point 2, for it is equally conclusive." SCIENTIFIC GARDENING. From the Boston Budget. Scientific gardening is taught in the national schools of Sweden and in the seminaries for the education of national school teachers. There is a school garden in nearly every rural district in the kingdom. The garden is placed near the school house, and the children receive practical instruction in the cultivation of plants, berries, flowers, herbs and fruits, the management of hedges, greenhouses, etc. Undignified. The subject of a young lady's essay, who was graduated from a Delaware county high school last summer, was "Hawthorne," and in her essay she said: "At the age of 30 Hawthorne married and took his wife to the old manor." The day after the commencement two of the village women were talking over the affair, and one of the remarked: "Wasn't it awful that Maude should say such a thing in her essay?" Her friend inquired what she alluded to. "Why," she said at the age of 30 Hawthorne married and took his wife to the old manor. Why didn't she say in his father-in-law's?" Philadelphia Times.
